

I am opposed to greater concentration of media in the hands of fewer and fewer corporations. We have evidence enough of the detrimental effects of concentration on radio. Let's not repeat that error. There are more important values at stake here than just efficiency.